Rotational Vacancy

DIRECTORATE FOR MATHEMATICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES
DIVISION OF MATERIALS RESEARCH
ARLINGTON, VA 22230

ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER EX00-70 ROTATOR OPEN: 08/04/2000 CLOSE: Until Filled

The National Science Foundation is seeking qualified candidates for a temporary position of Program Director for Materials Research Science and Engineering Centers (MRSECs) within the Division of Materials Research.

The incumbent will provide management and direction to the proposal-driven Materials Research Science and Engineering Centers Program (MRSECs). Responsibilities further include long-range planning and budget development for the areas of science represented by the program, the administration of the merit review process and proposal recommendation, the preparation of press releases, feature articles and material describing advances in the research supported, etc.

This position is for a period of 1-2 years and may be filled on a visiting scientist or temporary basis, or under the provisions of the Intergovernmental Personnel Act (IPA). IPA applicants must be permanent, career employees of eligible organizations for at least 90 days prior to entering into a mobility agreement with NSF. Salary and benefits will generally parallel those at the permanent employer.

Qualifications Required: Applicants must have a Ph.D. or equivalent experience in materials science and engineering, condensed matter physics, solid state and materials chemistry, polymer science or a related field of science or engineering. In addition, six or more years of successful research, research administration and/or managerial experience beyond the Ph.D. pertinent to the position is required. Applicants should be familiar with a broad spectrum of the materials research community and have a demonstrated interest in multidisciplinary materials research and education. Applicants who are multifaceted and have multidisciplinary experience and capabilities are desired.

The salary range, which includes a locality pay adjustment, is from $71,954 to $112,141 per annum depending on qualifications and experience. Individuals interested in applying for this vacancy should submit a resume or any application of your choice to the National Science Foundation, Division of Human Resource Management, 4201 Wilson Blvd. Arlington, VA 22230, Attn: EX00-70 Rotator. In addition you are asked to complete and submit the attached Applicant Survey form. Submission of this form is voluntary and will not affect your application for employment (the information is used for statistical purposes). APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY THE CLOSING DATE. Telephone inquiries may be referred to Sybil Smith, on 703-292-4375.
